I. SEC – Important Disclosures

No material listed on this website is or should be construed as an offer, or solicitation of, any potential clients or investors for the provision by Casdin Capital, LLC (together with its affiliates, "Casdin Capital," "we," "our," or "us") of investment management, advisory, or any other related services. Material listed on this website also is not and should not be construed as an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities in any fund or other vehicle advised by Casdin Capital. Any such offer or solicitation may only be made pursuant to any private offering materials and subscription materials, or similar documents, provided by Casdin Capital, which should be carefully reviewed prior to investing. The content on this website is only a high-level summary; it does not contain all material terms pertinent to an investment decision, including important disclosures of conflicts and risk factors associated with an investment with Casdin Capital. Any investment program described on this website is suitable only for sophisticated investors as the program by its nature involves a substantial degree of risk and could result in the loss of all of the capital invested. Investors are responsible for making their own investment decisions and evaluating their own regulatory and tax requirements based on all of their individual circumstances and judgments.

Any quotes provided on this website are not, and should not be construed as, a statement of any client's or investor's experience with, or endorsement of, Casdin Capital, nor do they otherwise reflect a client testimonial. None of the speakers of the "Words We Live By" are, or have been, investors or clients of Casdin Capital.

The ventures identified on this website do not represent all investments purchased, sold or recommended by Casdin Capital. These investments were selected to reflect the representative types of investment in which Casdin Capital's clients may invest and Casdin Capital believes these investments are indicative of its investment strategy and investment process. Casdin Capital may or may not, in its sole discretion, cause its clients to make the investments discussed on this website or cause its clients to make other investments not discussed on this website. Nothing on this website shall be deemed to limit the investment strategies or investment opportunities to be pursued by Casdin Capital or its clients.

Prior to joining Casdin Capital, Shaun Rodriguez was recognized as one of the 2014 Rising Stars of Wall Street by Institutional Investor. Each year, Institutional Investor asks buy-side investors to identify equity analysts that deserve to be recognized as up-and-comers—analysts who have been publishing research for less than three years in any region—who seem destined for greater glory.

Institutional Investor tabulates the votes and declares the analysts the Rising Stars of Wall Street Research. Respondents may name only one person per sector; to qualify, analysts must meet a minimum vote count and cannot have placed previously on any research team. The Rising Stars are not ranked; rather, they are listed alphabetically by sector, as all analysts who meet the eligibility requirements are awarded the designation. Analysts must be certified pursuant to Regulation AC to be recognized as Rising Stars in all research sectors. The 2014 survey drew responses from nearly 620 individuals at more than 350 firms that collectively manage some $5.9 trillion in U.S. equities.
